Superintendent Kennedy on the Stand.

Present—Commissioners James E. Cook, Chairman, and Gen. Hubbard, Inspectors Hunt, Hickey and Chesbrough, and Sergeant Pomeroy of the Police. Absent, Inspector Fuller, Lieut. Col. Hamilton and Capt. H. G. Cleveland. Mr. Ingham for the defense; Superintendent Kennedy sworn on the part of the prosecution. The record was read to the Tribune, but allowed from the Times and Journal, which was not ready.

Mr. Ingham—I object to the introduction of the record in the absence of the counsel for the defendant.

Mr. Kennedy—It is the correspondent of the Tribune, and I have a right to have it read.

Mr. Ingham—I am the counsel for the defendant, and I object to the introduction of a newspaper.

Mr. Kennedy—I am a superintendent, by statute, and I have a right to have the record read. I have been cross-examined by the counsel for the defendant, and I have a right to have the record read.

Mr. Ingham—I object to the introduction of the record in the absence of the counsel for the defendant.

Commissioner Cook—Does the counsel for the defendant propose to pay the expenses of the counsel for the prosecution?

Mr. Ingham—I do not.

The Chairman—If the counsel for the defendant will not pay the expenses of the counsel for the prosecution, we will not hear him.

Commissioner Cook—Does the counsel for the defendant propose to pay the expenses of a stenographer, or will he allow the counsel for the prosecution to have the record read?

Mr. Ingham—I do not propose to pay the expenses of a stenographer, or will I allow the counsel for the prosecution to have the record read.

Commissioner Cook—Then I shall move that the record be read.

Commissioner Hickey seconded the motion.

Commissioner Hubbard—I shall vote against the motion.

The motion was then put and carried by the following vote: Ayes—Commissioners Cook and Hickey. Nays—Commissioner Hubbard. Not voting—Commissioner Fuller.

The record was then read, as published in the Tribune, with the exception of the testimony of Mr. Kennedy, which was not reported.

Mr. Ingham—I move that the testimony of Mr. Kennedy be read from the Times.

Commissioner Cook—I move that the record be read from the Journal.

Commissioner Hickey—I move that the record be read from the Tribune.

Commissioner Hubbard—I move that the record be read from the Times.

The Chairman—The motion before the Board is to read the record from the Journal.

Commissioner Hickey—I move to amend by reading from the Tribune.

Commissioner Hubbard—I move to amend by reading
